

CONTENTS

Michael Møller Foreword | 9

Haakon A. Ikonomou and
Karen Gram-Skjoldager *Introduction:
The League of Nations –
Perspectives from the Present* | 13

Part 1

Inside the League

Torsten Kahlert and
Karen Gram-Skjoldager *The Men behind the Man:
Canvassing the Directorship
of the League of Nations Secretariat* | 19

Haakon A. Ikonomou *An International Language:
The Translation and Interpretation Service* | 30

Karen Gram-Skjoldager *Taming the Bureaucrats:
The Supervisory Commission
and Political Control of the Secretariat* | 40

Marco Moraes *Competing Internationalisms
at the League of Nations Secretariat, 1933-1940* | 51

Myriam Piguet *Gender Distribution in the League of Nations:
The Start of a Revolution?* | 62

Part 2

The League in Context

The League between Nation States and Empires

- Florian Wagner Naturism, the Permanent Mandates Commission and the Denial of the Violent Nature of Colonialism | 78
- Laura Almagor Israel Zangwill on Nationality and ‘The League of Damnsions’ | 90
- Mads Drange The Untold Story of Erik Colban and the Greco-Turkish Population Exchange | 102
- Haakon A. Ikononou ‘He used to give me Turkish lessons in Constantinople’: How to Get a Job in the League Secretariat | 113

The League, Economy and Expertise

- Søren Friis The Scandinavian Centre: Denmark and the Early Years of International Studies under the League of Nations | 123
- Hagen Schulz-Forberg Neoliberals and the League of Nations: On the Incidental Birth of Neoliberalism within the League’s Dot-Connecting System | 137
- Quincy Cloet ‘A fuller knowledge of the facts’: The League of Nations’ Endeavours to Produce International Expertise | 150
- Tomoko Akami Beyond the Formula of the Age of Reason: Experts, Social Sciences, and the Phonic Public in International Politics | 161
- Niels Brimnes Bandung Revisited: From Rural Hygiene to Primary Health Care | 172

Part 3

The League – Projections and Presence

Narrating the League

Emil Eiby Seidenfaden

*From the Gallery to the Floor:
The League of Nations and the Combating of ‘False Information’* | 188

Helle Strandgaard Jensen,
Nikolai Schulz and
Emil Eiby Seidenfaden

Film-Splaining the League of Nations | 201

Benjamin Auberer

*Murder, Intrigue, Sex and Internationalism:
Novels about the League of Nations* | 211

Paul Reef

*Imagining the League of Nations:
Cartoons as a Prism for Perceptions of International Politics and Organisations* | 223

The League’s Material Existence

Karen Gram-Skjoldager

‘A Great Experiment’: Professional Self-Perceptions and Working Conditions in the Secretariat | 235

Marco Ninno

*A Modernist in Geneva:
Le Corbusier and the Competition for the Palais des Nations* | 246

Torsten Kahlert

*‘The League is dead, long live the United Nations’:
The Liquidation of the League and the Transfer of Assets to the UN* | 256

Concluding Essay

Patrick Finney

*‘A Living Thing is Born’:
The League of Nations and the Contemporary World* | 267