WE AND THEY

AARHUS STUDIES IN MEDITERRANEAN ANTIQUITY VOL. 14

We and They addresses the we/they nexus when studying antiquity. Thematically this volume deals with issues of race and ethnicity, language and materiality, and gender and sexuality. The articles collected here share a very similar goal: to decolonize our understanding of antiquity, thus allowing modernity to converse with antiquity without constraining the latter to be either the direct precedent or the thoroughly other of the former.

EDITED BY

Jonathan Cahana-Blum, post.doc. at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and Karmen MacKendrick, professor of philosophy at Le Moyne, NY.
